

Student Preferences

Hello there!

I hope you are enjoying the course. My apologies for jumping in here, but I can assure you this won't take more than 30 seconds of your time. I am in the process of researching student preferences on learning methods, labs and technologies so that I can tailor my next course better for students. I would appreciate if you could fill in this short survey to help me. I can assure you this won't take more than 30 seconds of your time.
